“Leading
together for a better world”

FROM THE PRESIDENT

REVEREND RAFFOUL NAJEM

President

CCFI is a 21st-century apostolic movement modeled after the Antioch church paradigm (Acts 11:19–30). We seek to restore the original purpose of the church as the Ecclesia of God—the governing body of His Kingdom on earth.

We chose the Antioch model because of its rich and compelling characteristics including Team leadership, Multi-ethnic population, its Mission focus, and APEST.

APEST is an acronym for Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, Shepherd, and Teacher, describing the five ministry roles found in Ephesians 4:11. These roles are seen as essential for the growth and proper functioning of a church, with each role contributing to the overall health and mission of the body of Christ.

TO OUR MEMBERS

As we reflect on the past year, I am filled with gratitude for the collective efforts, dedication, and unwavering faith that our pastors and ministers have demonstrated. Together, we have navigated challenges and celebrated triumphs, that strengthened our fellowship and further our mission.

Our commitment to sharing the Gospel and supporting one another has never been more vital. Through outreach and service, countless lives have been touched, and hope has taken root in our communities. I encourage each of you to keep leading with love and compassion—your faith in action is a visible testimony of God's grace.

Thank you for your leadership, encouragement, and the inspiring examples you set. May we continue to unite in purpose, guided by His light, as we embark on another year of service and ministry.

Ephesians 4:16 NKJV, "from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love."
